

Angry

Happy

Scared

Sad

surprised

Emotions Art Cards

Cut apart each image and utilize with the Emotions Art Card Ideas Booklet and see more in the ARTS Bank at youthinarts.org

Youth in Arts®
© 2019 Youth in Arts

Card Ideas

Emotions Art

Emotions Art Card Ideas

- Draw lines that show FEELINGS: happy, sad, surprised, angry, scared...etc.
- How are you feeling right now? Draw a picture of your face with that feeling.
- Draw a SAD mouth, HAPPY eyes, a SCARED nose, and ANGRY eyebrows.
- Draw a picture of a time when you were surprised
- Imagine a time when you were sad and draw that moment.
- Draw your face two times showing two different feelings. What's the difference? Did you draw the eyes or the mouths differently? How so?
- Imagine a time from the past when you were angry and draw an abstract picture of what it felt like.
- Fold a piece of paper into four sections and using just shapes and lines draw a different emotional character in each section.
- Glue a stick to the back of the EMOTION cards to create puppets. Add more paper to finish the body, yarn for hair, or add hats and accessories to create a new character.
- Using round paper plates and sticks create masks that show a particular emotion. You can use markers, crayons, yarn, etc.
- How does the color RED make you feel? What about ORANGE? YELLOW? BLUE?
- Draw a Happy Picture of Yourself on the Cover of this Book.
- Open Up the Poncho Book and use the white side of the book to draw 8 different characters, with different emotions.