

Youth in Arts®

Gallery Exhibits 2011-12

Squeak! Squish! Sniff! Scrunch!

Art in Action

July-August 2012

Art from special needs preschoolers at Marindale School exhibited in an interactive environment encouraging visitors of all ages to use their senses to explore art-making.

Farm Fresh Fashion

May-June 2012

Curated by author and textile artist Rebecca Burgess, exploring how clothing sourced within our local fibershed benefits the earth.

Where We Live

April 2012

Original watercolors by students from Mary Silveira who worked with Mentor Artist Julia James from kindergarten through fifth grade.

Our World

Youth Visions of Family and Community
February-March 2012

A new mural created by students at Laurel Dell Elementary in San Rafael with Mentor Artist Angela Baker, along with student work from the mural-creation process.

¡Vuela, Paper Princess!

December 2011-January 2012

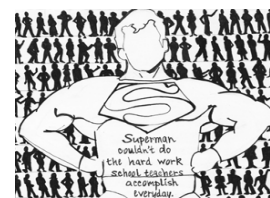

An exhibition of art by Elisa Kleven with handcrafted items from Youth in Arts' production of The Paper Princess and the Piñata, inspired by Kleven's books

180 Days: A Year in the Classroom

September-November, 2011

Drawings from the journal of Mentor Artist Brooke Toczyłowski, each representing one day in the 2010-11 school year.

Lights On!

June-August, 2011

Youth in Arts' inaugural exhibit exploring how the arts can turn on the lights of creative thought for learners of all ages and abilities.

