

Youth in Arts®

Gallery Exhibits 2012-13

How We Roll

June-August 2013

Youth-created designs for skate decks and clothing used by kids in action sports and everyday life. Created by Willow Creek Academy students with Mentor Artist K-Dub Williams. Sponsored by Umpqua Bank.

Symphony InSight

April-May 2013

Work by children at Mary Silveira, Willow Creek, Bahia Vista and Marindale created while listening to music from the repertoire of the Marin Symphony's Winter Family Concert. Sponsored by Bank of Marin.

Mary's Gift

February-March 2013

Art by second grade students from Bahia Vista inspired by ideas important to teacher Mary Donovan-Kansora. Sponsored by the Mary Donovan-Kansora Memorial Fund.

Re-Generation: Teaching Recycled Art, December 2012-January 2013

Art from recycled materials by Master Artists and their students. Take-away project ideas for kids and a scale model of the Golden Gate Bridge built from recycled scraps.

Cholq'ij: Voices of Our Ancestors

October-November 2012

Artwork celebrating the teachings of the sacred Mayan Calendar, created by Master Artist Ernesto Olmos with students and families as part of a special project supported by the Creative Work Fund.

Celebrate San Rafael

September 2012

Exploring the process of working with Davidson Middle School students to research and create a local history mural.

